MEMBERS' OPEN

Each year PAAM mounts four or more Members' Exhibitions in which participants display their work alongside some of most noteworthy artists in the United States. Members' Exhibitions at PAAM represent the work of contemporary artist-members of the Provincetown Art Association and Museum. While the work varies greatly in media and approach, each artist-member joins a long roster of distinguished artists who have studied, taught, and exhibited at PAAM over the past 100 years.

In the 1970's, the PAAM membership voted to present "open" exhibitions, allowing any and all members to exhibit their work in PAAM's galleries throughout the year. Members' Exhibitions represent an eclectic and extensive body of work displayed in "salon" style—that is, works that are stacked and tend to blanket the walls, versus the minimalist presentation most often seen in contemporary art galleries and museums. This practice was begun in Paris, France in the 19th century, where work was hung floor to ceiling and great paintings rubbed shoulders with the work of new and evolving artists. In the past 30 years, Members' Exhibitions have become integral to our exhibition schedule. We're sure you'll find work that engages, amuses, and provokes.

A special thank-you to Lew Schwartz and Chip Brock for volunteering their time to helping facilitate this exhibition.
