Bounties from the Sea:

Selections from the Permanent Collection

CURATED BY CHRIS MCCARTHY
ON VIEW JULY 12 - SEPTEMBER 8, 2024
IN THE PATRONS-JALBERT GALLERY

Located forty miles out to sea, Provincetown is one of the world's natural deep-water harbors and is situated at the tip of Cape Cod in an area of spectacular beauty, surrounded by miles of dunes and beaches.

A historic fishing village, Provincetown has been home to sailors, pirates, fisherman, artists, and creatives for centuries. In the nineteenth century, Provincetown, with the largest and safest natural harbor on the New England coast, was one of the greatest and busiest seaports in the country.

Fishing and whaling in Provincetown go back centuries, well before the Pilgrims arrived on Cape Cod's sandy shores. In fact, fishermen of a bygone era once landed mammoth 100 plus pound codfish, door-size halibut, haddock, and a variety of other valuable fish species right off the Provincetown coast. By 1860, the whalers' resourcefulness had made Provincetown one of the most prosperous and enterprising towns in Massachusetts. Since the 1970s, Provincetown has evolved from hunting whales to saving whales.

Artists and fisherman have been intermingling for over a century; in many instances, a fisherman would offer a share of their day's catch to provide a meal for an artist who might otherwise go without, and as you will see in this exhibition, many artists featured fisherman and fishing as the subject of their art. The PAAM Collection holds many examples of the sea and its occupants in variety of media including some fine examples from our jewelry collection.
